PRESIDENT'S PAGE

Dear Members,

As you can see, The Piedmont Historical Society Quarterly is no more. The local Society membership decided to change the title because some people, due to the old title, thought we dealt exclusively with history and that we were not interested in genealogy. Since this is erroneous, to say the least, it is felt that our new title will more clearly define our areas of interest to the public. Although our title is new, there is much that you will find here which is familiar and no major changes in editorial policy are foreseeable. However, as always, the editor welcomes your input and is grateful to those who have taken the time to share materials through our publication.

On 9 March 1985, the Society held a genealogical workshop at the University of South Carolina at Spartanburg. From my point of view, it was a definite success. Since this was our first endeavor of this sort, I was uncertain as to how it would go. The workshop was well received and had nearly seventy registrants to attend. The seminars were interesting and informative and everyone seemed to have had a good time. Much hard work went into the workshop, as is shown by the good results. I credit this to three devoted members of the Society: Bob Cartee and Lorene B. Barnett (who formed the workshop committee), and Faye Berry. Others of great assistance were Buddy and Sybil Berry, Carolyn Caldwell, Helena Floyd, Lyn Kiser, Marjorie Vaughn, and Mike Becknell. They put in the hard work which made everything run so smoothly. To each of you, I say "Thank you" for a job well done.

Summer is around the corner and we at the Society look forward to seeing some of our out of state members who will spend part of their vacation in this area doing research. If there is anyway that the Society or its members can be of help, please feel free to call on us. Have a safe and pleasant summer and travel with care.

BOOK REVIEWS

A History and Genealogy of the Penuel Price Family with Allied Families of Beaty, Sadler, Bryson by Marian Price Hart. Order from the author at 1545 Parrish Place, Jacksonville, Florida 32205. Hard bound, 246 pages, including full name index, illustrated. $21.50, including postage and handling.

As Mrs. Hart stated in her introduction, at times, it is not an easy task to trace one's roots. Such is the case with great-great-grandfather, Penuel Price, born 1785 and died August 6, 1864, in Anderson County, SC. There are many Prices and the author feels that she doesn't have enough evidence to try and prove Penuel's parentage. So, she begins with him and traces the family from there. The resulting volume contains many families from the Piedmont area, with special emphasis on the allied lines of Beaty, John Bryson (born ca. 1745) of Laurens County, SC, and the Richard Sadler family of York County, SC.

The book itself is printed on quality paper and well bound. The text is large enough for a person with the most faltering vision to read it with ease. Mrs. Hart's numbering system for each generation is logical and easy to follow. Perhaps my favorite feature of The Penuel Price Family is the documentation. Mrs. Hart not only provides a transcript of documents important to the documentation of this pedigree, she provides actual reproductions of the papers when possible--a novel and practical idea.

This book is a welcome addition to those doing Price research. It is also a model for those wanting to produce a good genealogy. I heartily recommend it.

The Holcombs of America edited by Brent H. Holcomb. Order from Inkwell Publications, 1661 Lauranceae Way, Riverdale, GA 30296. 24 pages. Subscription is $12.50 per volume (year).

The Holcombs of America is a new publication from Brent Holcomb. Its primary goals are to share information with all the Holcomb(e) researchers in the nation and to supplement the now out of print The Holcomes Nation Builders by the late Elizabeth Weir McPherson (published in 1947). This is certainly a help to those researching this surname.

The table of contents for vol. 1, no. 1 includes: Holcomb(e) Lineage of the Editor, Brent H. Holcomb; Our Oldest Holcombe Descendant; Holcombe Marriage Bonds from Surry County, North Carolina; Marriage of John Holcomb of Laurens District, SC; Some Holcomb(e) Marriage and Death Notices from South Carolina; Holcombs with Dodson Ancestry; A Power of Attorney from Travis County, Texas to Laurens District, SC; Holcomb(e)s from the 1850 Georgia Census; Queries; Book Reviews.

WILLIAM BYARS/BYERS OF THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR PERIOD

Compiled by Dorothy Eubanks Hays (Mrs. L.M.), 1300 Merry Hills Drive, High Point, NC 27260.

In search of the parents of my Great Grandfather, Thomas T. Byars Born ca. 1836. He as well as his parents were born in South Carolina, according to the 1880 Chester County SC Census. He raised his family in Chester County, and is buried there.

This search has led to many interesting discoveries, not only to the variety of spellings of the two main lines, Byars/Byers, but to the frustrating fact of two persons of the same name being in the same Archives File: Spartanburg Dist., File #436, Box 3, Pkg. 15 (See I and II below), and two persons of the same name filed together in the Pension Application File (see I and IV below). It was at this point I decided some one needed to try to sort out the various Williams-Seven (?) of them!

The Byers of York County, SC (III and IV), and the Byers of Rutherford County, NC and Spartanburg District, SC (I, II, and V) were two distinct families, and to date I have not found them intermarrying. The Williams (VI and VII) are not yet clear to us in their relationship to the other Byars of South Carolina.

The National DAR Numbers listed by each William, are all the Williams in their records.

I believe there are many more descendants who may have information that would help in our search. We especially need to know more about those sons where no information is listed by their name. Who they married, who their children were, etc. I do want to know who the parents of my Thomas T. Byars were! So, if anyone has knowledge of these, or any other Byars/Byers, or any allied line, PLEASE SHARE IT. Corrections and/or additions are most welcome. Postage gladly refunded. All letters will be answered.

NARROW ESCAPE

Source: The Carolina Spartan
Spartanburg, SC
3 Oct. 1861

We are glad to see our friend A.P. Hubbard, once more among his friends in this place. This gentleman is a member of the Palmetto Rifles, participating in the bloody fight of Manassas, & had a miraculous escape, on that occasion, from the imminent death. He was first shot by a minnie ball through the arm, which striking his tooth brush in his left breast pocket, ranged downward, cutting his watch chain, & would no doubt, have instantly terminated his existence, had not a Testament in an inner pocket again arrested the ball, which leaving it minus some chapters of Timothy, again glanced striking a silver pencil case in the vest pocket, & then pierced our friend's body through and through, though, as it has luckily proven not in a mortal place. Through the direct intervention of a benign Providence a valuable life has been spared, & we trust our friend may long live—a blessing to his numerous friends & relatives. We may say that Mr. Hubbard is now doing well and will soon be himself again. Anderson Gazette—3 Oct. 1861

Publications
 of the
Piedmont Historical Society

P. O. Box 8096
 Spartanburg, S.C. 29305

Some Spartanburg County Cemeteries, compiled and edited by Joseph R. Gainey
 130 pages, indexed. Soft cover

$18.00

Unlike other cemetery books, this one is crafted to meet the genealogist's needs by paying special attention to the plot and row arrangement of the graves. It presents transcripts of 58 Spartanburg County cemeteries in their entirety. Among the churches presented are Philadelphia Baptist, Bethesda Baptist, Concord Methodist, Mount Carmel Methodist, New Hope Methodist, and North Pacolet Presbyterian. In all, 21 churches, including 7 extinct ones, are published. Also, 34 family cemeteries, and 3 community and private cemeteries appear here.

Marriages From THE CAROLINA SPARTAN Newspapers 1866-1869, compiled and edited by Faye Berry Emory
 27 pages, indexed. Soft cover

$6.50

This is a complete listing of 1866-1869 marriages found in THE CAROLINA SPARTAN, a Spartanburg, South Carolina newspaper. Although these marriages are found in Spartanburg newspapers, they are not confined to that area. Many pertain to persons living in other counties of South Carolina and a few concern persons living in other states.

The Descendents of James Crook and Related Families 1746-1978. Compiled and edited by Martha King Neubauer 463 pages, including 63 page index.

$42.00

The society has acquired the 28 remaining copies of this detailed study of the James Crook family of Virginia and later Spartanburg County, S.C. However, the late Mrs. Neubauer did not limit this work to this particular family. She included information on other branches of the Crook family in England and America. She also included pictures of tombstones and various Crook homes. The second part includes information on the following related families: Anthony, Bane, Barry, Brockman, Burk, Coleman, Evins, King, Mann, Newman, Patton, Stallworth, Travis, and White families. "Bits and Pieces" (Part III) is an abstract from records of persons of the same surname, but with whom no proof of relationship has been established.

Reminiscences of The War Between The States, by W. R. Tanner. 26 pages, soft cover.

$5.00

W. R. Tanner was a Confederate veteran who lived at Cowpens, Spartanburg County, SC. J. R. Gainey has acquired from his family all the remaining copies of his reminiscences, which were published in 1931. They tell the story of how one participant viewed the Civil War and relates some anecdotes of his comrades. Also included is a roster of Company C, 13th South Carolina Regiment. A must for any Civil War buff.

The 1820 Census, Chester District, South Carolina, compiled by Faye Berry. 31 pages, soft cover.

$6.50

Faye Berry has abstracted the information found in the 1820 federal census for the over 1,500 families then living in Chester District. (Included in this volume are 14 families headed by "free persons of colour.") This volume eliminates the need of sitting in front of a microfilm viewer to find your ancestor's family here in 1820. It is a great research aid presented in a easy to use size and format.

The History of Mount Zion Church and Her People, by Dr. J. B. O. Landrum, edited by Joseph R. Gainey. 17 pages plus index, soft cover.

$5.00

This is a republication of a 1885 volume on Mount Zion Baptist Church, near Inman, Spartanburg County, SC. It traces the church from its establishment as a mission of Bethlehem Baptist in 1804, through its organization in 1827, up to the history's publication in 1884. This volume, though small in size, contains a wealth of information, both historical and genealogical, on Mount Zion and its early members.

1860 Mortality Census of Upper South Carolina, Volume I, compiled and edited by Faye Berry. 33 pages, soft cover.

$6.50

This is first in a two volume set which will include all of the Piedmont. Chester, Greenville, Spartanburg, Union, York, and Pickens Districts are in this volume. (Pickens at the time incorporated what is now Oconee County. Cherokee County was then found as part of Spartanburg, Union, and York counties.) Ms. Berry has listed all persons legible on the microfilm copy at the S. C. state archives. She has given their name, sex, age, race, and month of death as reported by the enumerator.

An Account of Marriages Solemnized By Tolaver Robertson In South Carolina Between October 1842 & February 1867, edited by Joseph R. Gainey. 16 pages plus index. $5.00

Rev. Tolaver Robertson kept an account of the marriages he "solemnized". This is not an unusual practice. What is unusual is that he published it in 1867. However, only one copy is known to have survived. This is a republication of the material found in it. Since marriage records were not kept by the State of South Carolina before 1911, this is a great boon to genealogists, especially those with roots in Laurens and Greenville counties. Robertson recorded 364 marriages for nearly 275 different surnames.

Back issues of the Quarterly are available at $6.00 per issue. Write the Society for a complete list of the contents of all back issues.
