PRESIDENT'S PAGE

Dear Members,

With this issue another year of publishing draws to an end. So, it is once again time to renew. Please don't fail to send in your dues before the new year. The new mailing list will be compiled before then and those wanting to receive the January issue must be on that list.

The new year will bring a change in the area we cover. We will begin including the counties of Abbeville, Greenwood, and Newberry and McCormick. This new scope of research is a welcome addition. If any of you have materials relating to the new area that you are willing to share, please send it to be included in the quarterly.

From 9 October 1985 through 13 October 1985, Faye Berry and I had the pleasure of taking a research tour of the Washington, DC area. During this short period of time, we were able to become acquainted with only some of the vast mountain of data that is available there. We plan to return in the spring of 1986. It will be very helpful to know the procedures we learned on this trip. Perhaps the best thing about this trip is the new friends we made from the Augusta Genealogical Society. We had a most enjoyable time sharing information and ideas.

Before closing, I'll take this opportunity to wish each of you a very happy holiday season. I hope your new year is filled with joy and happiness. Much luck to you all in your searches.

SOCIETY NEWS

The Piedmont Historical Society held its second annual awards dinner on Thursday, September 26, 1985 at the Ramada Inn in Spartanburg, South Carolina.

Those receiving awards were: Joseph R. Gainey, history award for his book, The Tie That Binds; Lorene Barnett, award for best scrapbook of newspaper articles; Bob Cartee, award for most complete genealogy, unpublished; Mike Becknell, award for most complete genealogy, published; Ruby Smith, award for best documented genealogy; Phillip Sutton, award for the best photograph collection; and Sybil Berry, award for best post card collection. Others who received special recognition for their contributions to the Society were Eddie Burns, Carolyn Caldwell, Betty Wyatt and Lori Phillips.

Those who served as judges were Katherine Hester, of Greenville, SC; Dr. L.D. Jordan, of Woodruff, SC; Brent Holcomb, of Columbia, SC; and Dr. Dan Olds, of Spartanburg, SC. Chairperson of the awards committee was Faye Berry.

In the next issue, we will be including the areas of Abbeville, Greenwood and Newberry in the quarterly.

Beginning with the next quarterly, we will be publishing names and addresses of our members and each surname they are researching. It will be helpful to other researchers if our members will include an area for each surname. Members' names will be published in the order in which they are received.

REMEMBER TO SUPPORT YOUR SOCIETY

Won't you become involved? Make a contribution or recruit a new member. Send material to the quarterly. Step forward and offer your talents. If our members all work as a team, we will grow and prosper. Pulling together is the best way to get on the move.

REMEMBER - GROWTH THROUGH INVOLVEMENT

DON'T FORGET TO SEND IN YOUR MEMBERSHIP RENEWAL

Please send in your check right away as our mailing list will soon be revised and those who have not renewed will be removed. We do not want you to be in this group so send in your check now while you are thinking about it.

ASBURY METHODIST CHURCH; 200 YEARS OF AREA HISTORY

Source: Gaffney Ledger
Dec. 19, 1963
by Bill Gibbons

Asbury Methodist Church of Pacolet Route 1, in Cherokee County, recently celebrated its 200th anniversary.

This church is one of the many along the Eastern seaboard to be named for America's first Methodist Bishop, Francis Asbury.

Bishop Asbury was sent to America in 1771 by the founder of the Methodist Church, John Westly.

Wherever Bishop Asbury preached, in his travels from New England through South Carolina and into Georgia, the "Methodist Meeting Places" became known as "Asbury's Chapel" or "Asbury's Church."

Exactly how and by whom Methodism first came into part of South Carolina later to be known as the Broad River Circuit cannot be determined with any degree of accuracy. John Wesley visited Charleston in 1736 and again in 1738. George Whitfield preached in Charleston in 1738 and again in 1740—"to great crowds, there meeting with much prejudice against Methodist in general and against himself in particular."

In 1762, William Marshbanks and William Sims, brothers-in-law, came from England to make their homes on a grant of land located in what was destined in later years to become Asbury Community. And a year later, in 1763, these two men built a crude house of worship which they called the Methodist Meeting House.

In 1785, Asbury made his first trip to South Carolina, stopping in route to Charleston with a Methodist family in what is now Cheraw. In 1787, when South Carolina had its own separate conference for the first time, Broad River Circuit was one of the seven circuits to which appointments were made. That year, 1787, the Rev. John Mason and the Rev. Thomas Davis were appointed to the Broad River Circuit. Thus we know that Methodism had somehow found its way into the "Up Country" and had taken root there some years before Asbury first came to South Carolina in 1785.

We cannot be sure as to the exact date of Asbury's first visit to this community in that the records of this church's early beginnings were destroyed by fire in 1926. One who had read the record for himself, quoting from memory, placed the date as the latter part of 1785 or early 1786. However, Asbury's diary does not record a visit to this section of the state until March of 1788. In all probability, 1788 is the correct date.

As far as specific information about Asbury Church is concerned—or the Broad River Circuit, for that matter—little is to be found between 1800 and 1900. Sketchy Conference Minutes provide little information beyond the names of the men appointed each year. Special mention is made of the fact that the news of George Washington's death was received while the conference was in session in 1800. That year William West and Britton Capel were appointed to the Broad River Circuit.

In 1830 Asbury Chapel had become too small to accommodate its membership. In that year, Jack Littlejohn, who had much good timber on his land, suggested that a new church be built. He provided the building materials and other members gave their labor. The new church was built on the present site was a large, one-room affair, with space enough for the slaves to worship along with their owners. Some of the lumber used in this church, built in 1830, is part of the present structure.

From time to time, changes were made in the geographical extent of the Broad River Circuit. As Methodism increased numerically in South Carolina, the few original large circuits were naturally divided into smaller circuits.

The year 1844 marked the time of the great division in the Methodist Episcopal Church, when the Northern and Southern branches divided over the issue of slavery. The Conference Minutes of 1850 make no mention of the Broad River Circuit, but lists the Reverend R.J. Boyd as having been appointed to the Union Circuit which seems to include part of the former Broad River Circuit in which Asbury Church was located.

In 1860 the Minutes tell us that the Reverend Joseph Parker was appointed to the Broad River "Mission". Again, this seems to refer to the area of which Asbury was a part. In the Minutes of 1890 there is no mention of the Broad River Mission-instead, these Minutes record that the Rev. A.A. Gilbert was appointed to the Gaffney Circuit, Asbury then being one of the several churches that made up this circuit. Ten years later, in 1900, we find the Reverend J.N. Isom appointed to the Cherokee Circuit and Asbury is listed among its member churches.

It would not be possible to list accurately all the pastors who ministered to the membership of Asbury Church from 1800 to 1900-even if there were time and space to do so.

Many of these men knew the handicap of inadequate preparation for so great a task. Nevertheless, they held the standard of Christ during a century that experienced a sad division within American Methodism, a war that rocked the very foundation of our country, and are sultant trying period of poverty and national re-organization.

The years 1900 through 1963 have been exciting, resourceful, yet challenging years in the history of Asbury Church.

According to the minutes of the South Carolina Conference, in 1900 Asbury was one of the five members of the Pacolet Circuit, which included Asbury, Lebanon, Pacolet, and Walnut Grove. At this time Asbury had only 57 members. The Reverend S.A. Nettles served as Pastor.

The succeeding twenty-five years brought many changes to Asbury. From approximately 1904 until 1926, Asbury became a member of the Gaffney Circuit which included Asbury, Gethsemane, Mesopotamia, Sardis, and Wilson's Chapel.

In 1927, Asbury became a most inactive church. She was dropped from the Methodist Church's list of appointments, and became closely associated with Montgomery Memorial Methodist Church at Pacolet Mills. It was at this time that George Becknell, Boyd Becknell, R.L. Parris, and Ed Hall, through their hard work and dedication, helped Asbury to survive.

In 1956 Asbury and Loree were placed on the same charge, and the Reverend Fred Porter was appointed as pastor of these two churches. Another change in 1959 placed Asbury and Fairmont on the same charge, with the Rev. David Holder as pastor. Rev. Holder served through 1961. Then came another change in our church-Asbury became a student appointment, in which young college men who were preparing for the ministry could serve as pastor while continuing their college education.

By action of the 1961 session of the Annual Conference, Asbury was placed on the same charge with Gethsemane. The Reverend Roy Dickerson came at this time as the first of the student pastors. After two years of service he was succeeded by the Reverend Stanley McGraw, present pastor.

Today, Asbury stands proudly, the white steeple tower pointing upwards towards the sky. Each Sunday morning, many of her members walk through the sanctuary to worship God.

Asbury has a full Sunday school and church program. The children's, youth, and adult divisions seek to fulfill the religious needs of its members by providing good literature, teachers, and equipment. The Methodist Men's Club, the Woman's Society of Christian Service, and the Methodist Youth Fellowship are part of the church program.

What's in the future for Asbury Methodist Church? What is planned for the next year-the next century in the Asbury Community and at the church?

According to the Commemorative Program of the Bicentennial Observance, from which most of the material used in this article was taken, "the future is a challenge that, like the challenges of the past 200 years, will be met with faith and courage in a community and a church rooted in the history of our country."

Editor's Note: For persons doing research on the Methodist Churches, in South Carolina, I suggest they contact the archives at the Sandor Teszler Library, Wofford College, Spartanburg, South Carolina 29301. Although not all church records can be found there, this collection does have many records of genealogical value. It is the only depository in South Carolina for the Methodist records.

OBITUARIES OF CONFEDERATE VETERANS

The following obituaries were taken from The Confederate Veteran. The Veteran was "published monthly in the interest of Confederate veterans and kindred topics", and ran from 1893 until 1932.

Vol. XIX No. 8, August 1911, Pp. 391 and 395

G.F. Amos, a veteran of the Mexican and Civil Wars, one of the oldest men of Etowah County, Ala., died at his home, in Short Creek, on July 3, aged ninety-two years. He was born in Spartanburg, S.C. in 1819, and lived in that State until 1844, when he migrated to Georgia, and there married Miss Emeline Satterfield in 1845. To them were born nine children, seven of whom are still living. He enlisted in the war against Mexico in 1846, and served to its close, when he returned to his home in Georgia. In 1859 he removed to DeKalb County, Ala.; and when the Civil War began, he enlisted under Capt. W. B. Beeson, and served through the great conflict as a private, doing his duty valiantly until mustered out in Memphis in 1865.

In many ways the coming generations can afford to emulate the life of "Uncle Frank", as he was familiarly called. He was fearless and courageous and daring in the expression of his opinions, yet according to others the same freedom. He was a close student of events transpiring in his day, and retained his interest in public matters even to the last.

Capt. W.B. Beeson, under whom he served as a member of Company G, 49th Alabama, writes from Collinsville, Ala.; "In the early days of the Civil War George F. Amos was mustered into service at Nashville, Tenn., and was one of the finest looking soldiers I ever saw. He was six feet two inches in height, weighted two hundred pounds, and was as straight as an Indian, and every fiber of that great body was made up of gallantry and courage."

James B.F. Burns was born in Laurens District, S.C. February 25, 1825; and died near Hattiesburg, Miss., August 25, 1910. He was buried at Decatur, Miss. In 1848 he was married to Miss Emily Brown. He served in Company H of the 1st Regiment, commanded by General Forrest.

Vol. XX No. 1, January 1912, Pp. 34 and 37.

On the 9th of October, 1911, occurred the death of Capt. Thomas M. Saunders of Chester County, S.C., in his sixty-eighth year. He had lived all his life near the town of Chester. He lost his father when a child and was reared by a devoted grandfather. When quite a young he was sent to the military school at York, from which he ran away to join the army when not quite seventeen years old. He became a member of Company D, 1st South Carolina Regiment, under Capt. W. Alex Walker. He was detailed from his company as courier on Gen. J.E.B. Stuart's staff, where he served, as he said, until he wore out three horses carrying dispatches.

In the redemption of his State from misrule in 1876 Captain Saunders did heroic service, commanding a company in that stirring period. He was ever ready to do anything for his country's good of the betterment of his fellow men. He was a Christian of simple, ardent, and direct character.

After the war Captain Saunders was married to Miss Ada Elizabeth Walker, youngest daughter of Adam Terry Walker and Elizabeth Newport Head Walker, and to them were born seven children-four sons and three daughters. He was of Scotch-Irish descent, and also a lineal descendant of Sir Peter Osborne, of Kent, England.

The death of Robert L. Keys occurred in October at the home of Mr. Samuel Powers, of Anderson, S.C. He was the fourth brother to die in eighteen months. He is survived by two brothers and a sister. For thirty years or more he was agent at Anderson for the Southern Express Company and in later years had been a successful farmer.

Robert Keys enlisted in the Confederate service as a member of the Palmetto Riflemen, Company C, of Anderson, with which we served throughout the war. He was made color sergeant for the Palmetto Riflemen with the 4th Regiment, of which his original company had been a part. He served with distinction and was twice wounded. At the close of the war he returned to Anderson, and in 1868 was married to Miss Annie C. Archer, who died some eleven years ago.

Vol. XX No. 3, March 1912, Pp. 125 and 126.

Death came suddenly to Zack Howell at his home, in Shreveport, La., after a brief illness of acute digestion. He was born in Chester County, S.C., and was in his seventy seventh year. Erect, agile, and of a cheerful disposition, he viewed life from its brightest side.

In 1856 he went to Shreveport, where he engaged successfully in business as a cotton factor and a warehouseman, and he was also interested in agricultural matters. He was a splendid citizen as he had been a good soldier-a defender of the Confederacy, serving in Company A, 25th Louisiana Infantry. He was in the battles of Perryville, Ky., Murfreesboro, Tenn., and several engagements under Gen. J.E. Johnson. At the close of the war he surrendered at Shreveport, having been transferred from the Army of Tennessee.

Comrade Howell is survived by two daughters and two sons. He was a member of Leroy Stafford Camp, U.V.C., from which a delegation attended the funeral.

BOOK REVIEWS

Our Heritage Columbia County [Georgia] 1754-1983 by Janette S. Kelley. Order from Mrs. Janette S. Kelley, Star Route Box 66A-2, Harlem, GA 30814. Soft cover, 144 pages, indexed, $7.95.

This is the first of a series of volumes planned to preserve the heritage of Columbia County, Georgia, which is located north-west of Augusta. The subtitle of this volume is "Personalities 1754-1983". However, it is not limited to individual persons. It includes sketches on families including those found in Dr. R. H. Casey's Reminiscences (which have been reprinted in full) that were published in 1883 in the Columbia Sentinal. (It might be well to mention here that Dr. Casey's articles also includes families from McDuffie County, Georgia.

Also included in this volume is a reprint of the Columbia County section from Memoirs of Georgia published in 1890 by the Southern Historical Society; reflections of senior citizens; a list of Columbia County soldiers killed in the Civil War, World War I and World War II; interviews with public officials; and land grants in St. Paul's parish, which included this area of Georgia during the colonial period.

Among the featured surnames included in this volume are Bailey, Baldwin, Beasley, Boyd, Bullard, Calhoun, Candler, Carr, Casey, Clary, Crawford, Davis, Dent, Evans, Few, Gibson, Hardin, Hardy, Harrison, Hayne, Hunt, Jones, Johns, Lee, Magruder, Means, Marshall, McDaniel, Morris, Morrow, Nash, Phillips, Pollard, Prather, Reid, Richards, Rogers, Smith, Watson, Williams, and Young.

This book is a real must for people with roots in this area and I would highly recommend it. The introduction states that this book is the result of ten years of research. It is well done.

Wallace A. Rainey and Jessie I. Ringer Their Ancestors, Descendants and Allied Families by Ralph E. Rainey. Order this volume from Ralph E. Rainey, Box 296, Carlyle, IL 62231. Hardcover, 402 pages, indexed, $35.00.

Ralph E. Rainey has traced his parent's ancestry from Illinois through Kansas and Pennsylvania to Germany. One can tell that much research has gone into this genealogy and the author has made great efforts to cite his sources in such a manner that other researchers can check his findings with ease.

Among the surnames also connected with these families are Kircher, Mahlandt, Aldag, Babb, Beam, Beatty, Brilhardt, Casey, Bryant, Eshelman, Fisher, Goesling, Goewert, Greear, Johnston, Lappe, Ogle, Robuck, Shoop, Stark, Wade, Watkins, Wells, White, and numerous others.

Mr. Rainey states that about twenty years of work went into this book. This fact is evident because he has produced a beautiful book that is profusely illustrated and contains excellent documentation. This book is a "steal" at $35.00 to those researching the Rainey and Ringer families.

QUERIES

WILLIAMS/GRAHAM

John F. Mason, 240 Fisher Place, Princeton, NJ 08540

Seeking information on Jeremiah Williams (1750-before 1830) and his wife Nancy (Jane?) Graham (died 1829) of Anderson County.

WHITE/BARRON

Virginia E. Holter, 5400 N.W. Cherry St., Vancouver, WA 98663

Seeking parents and place of birth of Elias White (born ca. 1798) and his Elillies Barron (born ca. 1792). Elias and Elillies moved from SC to Tennessee and later on to Missouri. John and William White were neighbors of Elias in Missouri. William White is said to have moved there from Georgia. Another neighbor was Samuel Barron who may have been related to Elillies. Will be glad to exchange information.

MORGAN

G.W. Dickey, P.O. Box 1325, Wimberley, TX 78676

Seeking information on Della A. Rivana Morgan (born 1808 in Spartanburg Co.) married ca. 1823 to Joseph Sutton. Della's brother was J.A. Morgan. Their father was a post master, but I do not know his name.

GIST

Helen G. Kleiber, 1773 Roberts Rd., Ceres, CA 95307

Seeking proof of the parents of James Harvey Gist (Feb. 15, 1836 Wayne Co, Kentucky). Have been told his parents were Aaron Gist and Mary (Marlowe?).

GREEN/PERRY/UNDERWOOD/HAMMETT/DAVIS/TAYLOR

Eugene R. Perry, 6835 Cowles Mountain Blvd., San Diego, CA 92119

Seeking any information on Artemesia Green (born ca. 1775, Va) moved to Greenville by 1813 with her grandmother Eliazabeth (Underwood) Green whose husband George Green died in Fauquier Co., Va in 1807. Artemesia married William Horton Perry and moved to Habersham Co., Georgia by 1820. Children of Artemesia in Greenville were: 1. Louisa md. Joel Hammett. 2. Caleb Green md Nancy Hammett. 3. John C. Green md. Amelia Davis and later Mrs. Selina Taylor. John C. Green is said to have become a well known Baptist minister in Greenville Co.

HEATH

Irene H. Bearden, 1717 Norfolk, #1444, Lubbock, TX 79416

Seeking information on John Heath/John William Heath, who was born ca. 1761 in England. Wife's name unknown. Children: Thomas Butler, Isaac, William, Daniel, Griffin, Henry, Eunice, Enic, John -married Polly Monroe of Habersham Co., Georgia, and Elizabeth-married Joseph Clark. Would like to correspond with descendants of the above named children. I am descended from John and Polly Monroe Heath. Most of these children were born in South Carolina. I do not know the counties.

VANCE

Betty S. McGarity, 1829 Almeta Ave., NE, Atlanta, GA 30307

Seeking information on the Vance family. Samuel Vance, died in Guilford Co., NC in 1789. Later several of his children, John, James, Joseph, and possibly Alice Endsley, were in Laurens Co. by 1804. Did their mother Alice (Ailse) also go there? Did she die there?

JAMES/MOSS/WHITE

Marjorie W. Vaughan, Route 8, Hwy #9, Inman, SC 29349

Need the mother's maiden name of Richardand Thomas James and John Moss. All three were living in 1790, and their mothers were probably Whites before marrying.

TINSLEY

John R. Dulin, Rt 7 Box 234-A, Henderson, TX 75652

Seeking proof that William Tinsley (born ca. 1762 in Va. and died in 1851 Mascogee Co., Ga) was a brother of Goulding Tinsely, a Rev. soldier from SC. Both a William and Goulding Tinsley were living in Newberry Co., SC in 1830 and 1840. Was their father Isaac Tinsley, Sr., formerly of Culpepper Co., Va? Who was Wm Tinsley's wife? Her given name was Mary. They had a son Goulding and a son name Larken G. who was supposed to have been born in Newberry Co.

WHITE

Helen Smith, 2736 Henry Street, Augusta, Ga 30909

Would like to correspond with any descendants of Daniel White (died Spartanburg Co. 7 January 1848). Daniel had the following children: 1. Henry md. Margaret McClure. 2. Basil md. ?. 3. James never marr. 4. Owen never marr. 5. Edin md. Elvira ? 6. Polly never marr. 7. Elsey/Elcy/Alsa md. Henry Young. 8. Larkin never marr.

Cedar Springs Baptist Church

Helen M. Floyd, Historian, 2281 Middle Dr., Spartanburg, SC 29302

Cedar Springs Baptist Church will celebrate it's bicentennial the first weekend in March 1986. We would like to copy any records pertaining to the church, pictures especially. Will copy and return or will pay for copies sent.

ZIMMERMAN

Helen M. Floyd (see above)

Seeking the parents of David Zimmerman (ca. 1793-ca. 1869) marr. Margaret Richenbacker. David moved circa 1839 to Spartanburg Co. from St. Matthews, S.C.

STORY

Janette S. Kelly, Star Route Box 66 A 2, Harlem, GA 30814

Seeking information on the parents of George Washington Story (ca. 1850-1917). George marr. Cyndia "Pinky" Prather.

THORN

Mrs. Lillian Hofmann, 1610 Rodgers Dr., Graham, TX 76046

Need information on the parents of Theophilus Thorn, who was born ca. 1812 in S.C. and died in 1860 in Hempstead County, Arkansas. His wife's name was Eliza. Need her maiden name and the name of her parents. Theophilus and Eliza were the parents of the following children: 1. Lucinda marr. L.C. Mobley; 2. Mahala marr. Peyton G. Whaley; 3. Emely; 4. Eliza marr. Andrew J. Hawkins; 5. Christopher Columbus marr. Virginia E. Spurgon; 6. Whitney S.; 7. Edith F. marr. C.C. Spurgon; and 8. Mary Desota (1851-1869). I would like to correspond with anyone working on the Thorn line or anyone who might have data or a lead on further research for this line.

SLAYTON/SLATON

Patricia T. Maddox, RR2 Box 65A, Murrayville, IL 62668

Seeking information about John Slayton/Slaton who was born ca. 1810 in S.C. He had a son W.F. who was born ca. 1845 and moved to Georgia from S.C., possibly Anderson County.

DILLARD

William A. Jones, 10623 Kinloch Road, Silver Spring, MD 20903

Would like to know the location of the Dillard family cemetery in NE Laurens Co. Has this cemetery been recorded? If so, where can this record be found.

SUMNER

The Sumner Family Association, 62 Sandbury Dr., Pittsford, NY 14534.

Sumner descendants named (or variants) who trace ancestry through Samuel (b. 1643 MA) or Increase (b. 1638 MA) of Dorchester SC wanted to complete lineal Sumner genealogy. Descendants moved to Midway GA 1754. People with surnames Way, Baker, may have ancestral information wanted.

BERRY

Helen Berry, Rt 2 Box 171, Saluda, SC 29138

Need information on Joseph Berry (d. 1819) of Edgefield Co., S.C. Joseph marr. Hannah Taylor. Also searching for Westly Berry who marr. Mildred Rountree in Union Co., SC. Can anyone give me the name of a Dr. Berry who helped write a history of the Rountree family?

BOGAN

Mike Becknell, Rt 1 Box 266, Jonesville, SC 29353

Seeking PROOF that Ester Bogan (wife of Isaac) was a Farrar and not a McIlroy. The will of James McIlroy (dated Sept. 22, 1780) in Abbeville states that he had a daughter named Ester Bogan. Around 1796 Isaac Bogan purchased property on Sugar Creek (in Union Co.) which ajoined the property of James McIlroy.
