Some Spartanburg County Cemeteries, compiled and edited by Joseph R. Gailey
130 pages, indexed. Soft cover

$18.00

Unlike other cemetery books, this one is crafted to meet the genealogist's needs by paying special attention to the plot and row arrangement of the graves. It presents transcripts of 58 Spartanburg County cemeteries in their entirety. Among the churches presented are Philadelphia Baptist, Bethesda Baptist, Concord Methodist, Mount Carmel Methodist, New Hope Methodist, and North Pacolet Presbyterian. In all, 21 churches, including 7 extinct ones, are published. Also, 34 family cemeteries, and 3 community and private cemeteries appear here.

Marriages From THE CAROLINA SPARTAN Newspapers 1866-1869, compiled and edited by Faye Berry Emory
27 pages, indexed. Soft cover

$6.50

This is a complete listing of 1866-1869 marriages found in THE CAROLINA SPARTAN, a Spartanburg, South Carolina newspaper. Although these marriages are found in Spartanburg newspapers, they are not confined to that area. Many pertain to persons living in other counties of South Carolina and a few concern persons living in other states.

The Descendents of James Crook and Related Families 1746-1978. Compiled and edited by Martha King Neubauer
463 pages, including 63 page index.

$42.00

The society has acquired the 28 remaining copies of this detailed study of the James Crook family of Virginia and later Spartanburg County, S.C. However, the late Mrs. Neubauer did not limit this work to this particular family. She included information on other branches of the Crook family in England and America. She also included pictures of tombstones and various Crook homes. The second part includes information on the following related families: Anthony, Bane, Berry, Brockman, Burk, Coleman, Evins, King, Mann, Newman, Patton, Stallworth, Travis, and White families. "Bits and Pieces" (Part III) is an abstract from records of persons of the same surname, but with whom no proof of relationship has been established.

SOME NOTES ON THE JAMES LYLES FAMILY OF NEWBERRY

The following information was found in Richardson's Law Reports, Volume I. Law books are often overlooked as a source of information for the genealogist.

James M. Henderson vs. Joseph D. Kenner
Before Judge O'Neal at Newberry, July, Extra Term, 1844

This was an action of trespass to try title to a tract of land represented on the plat used at the trial, by the letters P and C. The land was first owned by James Lyles, who died intestate during the Revolution. He left a widow named Lucy, (who afterwards married one Goree) and three daughters, Ruth, Elizabeth (who married Benjamin Maybin) and Nancy. In 1810, dower was assigned to the widow, and partition had by consent. The part marked C, with twice as much more, was assigned as dower, and the part marked P, was allotted to Ruth. In 1816, Ruth died, leaving an illegitimate daughter, Dolly Lyles, to whom she devised her whole estate. J.L. Goree was named executor in the will, and he was one of the subscribing witnesses. Lucy, the mother, Elizabeth and Nancy, survived Ruth. In 1831, Lucy Goree died, leaving Elizabeth and Nancy surviving her, and a daughter by her second marriage, Mrs. Kenner, the wife of Samuel E. Kenner, and mother of the defendant. On part of the land allotted to Ruth, was a field, which was cultivated by the guardian of Dolly Lyles, until 1819, and after that time, rented out by him for five years, for the benefit of Dolly. In 1829, Dolly removed to the west and appointed Davis Caldwell her agent. In the same year, Benjamin Maybin built a house on Dolly's land, (the tract marked P,) and stuck up a notice in the neighborhood, that he claimed the land in right of his wife, but if Dolly ever returned, he would abandon the possession. In 1831, Dolly brought an action of trespass to try title against Benjamin Maybin, and in 1835, at Fall Term, the case was tried, and a verdict was rendered for the defendant. In 1834 or 5, the house built by Benjamin Maybin, was, with his permission, removed from the land. No one remaining in possession, in 1837, and before two years from the time the verdict was rendered had expired, Davis Caldwell, as agent of Dolly Lyles, took possession of the land, built a house on it, and rented it out for three years. In 1840, the defendant, as agent of his father, Samuel E. Kenner, bought the crop from the tenant of Dolly, and took possession of the land. In 1841, Dolly sold the land to Samuel E. Kenner, and the defendant remained in possession, as tenant of his father. In the same year, Benjamin Maybin and wife conveyed all their interest in the land to the plaintiff. On behalf of the defendant, Davis Caldwell testified that the action of Dolly Lyles, against Benjamin Maybin, was defeated, on the ground that no trespass was proved. This testimony was objected to, but admitted by the court. As to the part marked C, there was some evidence which went to show an actual "ouster". The jury found for the defendant, and the plaintiff later appealed.

HOPEWELL METHODIST CHURCH ORGANIZED IN 1830

The following history of Hopewell Methodist church was written by J.E. King and appeared in the July 8, 1965 issue of The News, a daily newspaper published in Westminster, SC.

The first church organized where Hopewell Methodist church now stands was known as the Liles church. This was probably due to the fact that Joseph Liles was the main leader in this organization. The services were held in private residences on weekdays or at night until a building could be erected.

In or around the year 1830, a building was erected of hewn logs with a stick and clay chimney. The building was used for both church and school and for sometime was located where the Hopewell cemetery is now. At that time it was in the North Carolina conference.

In the year 1855 a frame building was built primarity (sic) by Joseph Liles and Thomas Jenkins. It continued to go by the name of the Liles church until 1857 when the Rev. Fletcher Smith, the preacher in charge, gave it the name "Hopewell." The second building was in use until 1879 when it was destroyed by fire.

In the year 1857 when the second building was in use, we find the following list of members taken from an old class book dating from June 19, 1857 to March 16, 1867. The first list contains these names:

Male Members

Joseph Liles-C.L.	James M. Liles
John Brown-C.L.	G.F.M. Brown
T.S. Miller	James Mateson Spencer
E. Travis Brown	Thomas Brown
Wm H. Jenkins	Samuel Liles
Thomas Jenkins	G.W. Mason

Female Members

Lilla Liles	Martha Liles
Mary A. Jenkins	Debora Liles
Mary Brown	Nancy Liles
Peniah Harbert	Martha Jenkins
Manda Brown	Emily Jenkins
Lucinda Brown	M.H. Miller
Martha Elizabeth Brown	Eliza King

By the year 1862 there appears to be quite a number of new members. Notatins (sic) following many names indicate that they were either in the army or had died in the service.

Listed below are some of the names of those who were in the army:

Wm H.H. Jenkins
 Samuel Liles
 C.W. Mason
 Robert E. McWhorter
 E.T. Brown-died in Virginia, Sept. 24, 1862

Arch E. Jenkins
 Hugh Isham Liles-died in camp
 Chas. B. Jones
 Wm A. McWhorter

By the fall of 1865 we find the membership organized in classes "A", "B", "C", "D", and "E." Then in March of 1866 we find a record of a Sunday school having been organized. W.A. McWhorter was the first superintendent with J.L. Harbert serving as superintendent later on.

The church school record would not be complete without giving due honor and credit to J.L. Bryan, who for a continuous period of 40 years served as superintendent of the church school. His granddaughter and her family, including her children and grandchildren unto the third and fourth generation, continue to be very active members of the church and church school.

Then there were the children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren of Andrew Miller Pickens who have been loyal supporters of the church and church school down through the years. There are, also, the descendants of Elbert and Emily Jenkins Davis, who through the years and up to the present time, have given the work of the church wonderful support.

In this class book or journal of Hopewell Methodist church conferences we find some very interesting items pertaining to some of their meetings and financial statements. For instance, under the date of Thursday, May 17, 1866, we find the following question and answer:

Question: What report from the church treasurer?

Answer: Church treasurer reports as follows:

Balance on hand at last conference	$11.00
Rec'd from class "B"	.15
Rec'd from class "C"	1.75
Rec'd from class "D"	5.00
Total	$17.90
Paid to circuit steward for preacher	$17.90
Balance on hand	$.00

In another place we find a record of a meeting dated Jan. 20, 1866:

"Public worship was conducted at night by Rev. J.H.C. McKinney, preaching from Jerr. 22 c: 29 v. Also Jan. 21 lovefeast 9:30 o'clock a.m. Preaching at 11 o'clock from John 3rd c: 9 v, after which the Lord's supper was administered by preacher in charge. Preaching in afternoon by Rev. Drury Knox from 1st Tim., 1st c: 15 v. Feb. 1 preaching by Rev. R.M. Harrison, J.P. 1st Tim., 2 c: 1 v."

Another meeting was dated only as the first Sunday in March, 1866.

"Lovefeast 9:30 a.m. Preaching at 11 a.m. from Acts 11 c: 23 v. Preaching at 3 p.m. from John 19 c: 25 v. to the colored people."

When the second building was destroyed by fire, the people did not give up. Thomas Jenkins deeded the church 2½ acres of land for a church lot and 6/10 of an acre for a cemetery.

Jenkins also gave the material for another building. R.A.

Gilmer was the architect and chief supervisor of construction. R.H. Waters and Hamp Crosby were the head carpenters. Both Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins and Gilmer are buried in the Hopewell cemetery.

In those days there was an abundance of virgin timber and the best was used in erecting this building. It is said that the sills were 24 inches square and were hewn from choice heart logs the full length of the building which was 80 feet by 90 feet and would comfortably accommodate 500 people.

Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins raised 5 sons and 6 daughters, all of whom are buried at Hopewell with the exception of their oldest son, Wm. H.H. Jenkins. He served through the Civil War and died June 28, 1865 at Charleston, S.C., after having been released from prison at Point Lookout, Md., on June 6, 1865. He died of malnutrition before reaching home after the war and was buried in Magnolia cemetery at Charleston.

This third building was in use until March 18, 1939. Around 11:30 one mourning funeral services were being conducted for Lawrence McGuffin when someone discovered a fire on the roof. The fire started on the east side and since there was a strong wind blowing from the west the fire was burning slowly.

The large crowd attending the funeral could have easily extinguished the fire if there had been any fire fighting equipment available. There was no water-not even a well. The roof was high and no ladder available with sufficient height to reach it.

Those attending the funeral service hastily carried out all the furnishings, including the window sash. The pews and window are now in use in a very comfortable but smaller building which was erected and dedicated in less than a year. Bishop Clare Purcell dedicated this building. Rev. L.D. Gillespie was district superintendent and Rev. G.T. Hughes was pastor. Rev. D.A. Clyburn, Sr., preached the sermon.

In cooperation with the Jenkins-Pickens reunion the church has erected a beautiful white marble picnic table in the church yard. This table measures 3 feet by 42 feet and has 84 feet of marble seats.

At present Hopewell is very active with a membership of approximately 55. It is located about 6 miles west of Westminister and one mile north of highway 123. It is in the Westminister charge with Rev. David T. Templeton preacher in charge. He is assisted by Rev. Winston R. Morgan. QUERIES

COOK

Faye Berry, PO Box 4038, Spartanburg, SC 29305

Seeking information on James Cook who died in Spartanburg County on June 3, 1845. Also need the maiden name of his wife, Nancy. Their children were: Marcus, Judith, Elizabeth, James, Alexander, and perhaps others not known to me. Any help appreciated and cost for any copies will be reimbursed.

CANNON

Faye Berry, (see above)

Desperate for information on James Cannon (ca 1786-20 Dec 1874), wed Rebecca Elizabeth Weaver (ca 1799-8 Aug 1881), dau of Thomas J. Weaver. James Cannon is closely connected to the Cannon families of the Cannon's Camp Ground area of Spartanburg County, but in ten years of research, I have not been able to learn his connection. Any help or suggestions appreciated.

BISHOP LAWRENCE

Rev. Harold Lawrence, PO Box 606, Cumming, GA 30130

Would like to correspond with anyone researching the Bishop and Lawrence families of Spartanburg and Union Counties. I am willing to share information.

BOBO

Mrs. Jack T. Marsh, 119 West Lake Chapman, Lutz, FL 33549

Need information on Nathan Bobo, Samuel Bobo (ca 1823-1855) and Eliza Duke Bobo.

HARRIS

Belva Harris Cauthen, 441 East Center St, Canton, MS 39046

Would appreciate any information on Archibald Harris who was listed in the 1790 census of Spartanburg County. In 1799, he may have been a Baptist preacher at the Cross Roads Church in Pickens County. Related families are King and Hooper.

HOGG/HOGUE

Mike Massey, 229 Tiverton St, Fayetteville, NC 28304

Need additional information on Eli Hogg/Hogue. He was born Sept. 7, 1828 in SC; probably in Newberry or York County. His parents are believed to be Thomas and May Hogg. Known siblings are Thomas, Elnathan, and Mary. Eli moved to TX about 1853 or 1854. Any help appreciated.

MITCHELL MOORE HILL NEWLAN

Mrs. Clyde S. Wiggins, Jr., 2306 Pontiac Dr, Tallahassee, FL 32301

Would like to correspond with descendants of Isaiah (or Isaac) Mitchell, Sr. (ca 1768-1810) who wed Dorothea "Dolly" Moore. Would also like to correspond with descendants of Rev. Elias Mitchell (ca 1760-1834) who wed Millie Hill (ca 1761-1839) of Chester and Union Counties. Were they brothers? Need maiden name of Jane, born ca 1820 who wed in Chester County to Isaiah Mitchell, Jr. (ca 1809-1856); married second to Rev. John Newlan, a Baptist minister. They settled in Suwannee County, FL in 1861.

PARIS MORRIS

James A. Paris, Rt. 2, Box 70, Oakland, MS 38948

John Paris born ca 1794 wed in Spartanburg County in 1826 to Nancy Morris born ca 1798. It is believed they lived on Buck Creek close to Joseph and William Morris who moved to Spartanburg County from VA. In 1842, John moved his family of six or seven to Gibson County, TN where Joseph and William had already moved. Who were the parents of John Paris and what is the relationship of Joseph and William Morris to Nancy Morris Paris?

HAYS/BYARS

Dorothy E. Hays, 1300 Merry Hills Dr, High Point, NC 27260

An Elisha Byars had land in what is now Cleveland County, NC. I believe he was a son of William Byars (ca 1760-1800, Spartanburg District) and his wife, Sarah. This Elisha was a deacon in Camp's Creek Baptist Church in 1847. Need proof of his parents and his wife. Also need names of their children. One of his daughters may have been Elizabeth Byars (January 9, 1828-May 14, 1892). She wed James Ruppe, a son of Daniel and Elizabeth (Neighbors) Ruppe, of Cleveland Co, NC. James and Elizabeth were the parents of seven children, three of whom died young and are buried at Camp's Creek Baptist Church. James Ruppe wed second to Kishiah Adaline McCraw. There was no issue from this marriage. Would like to hear from anyone with connections to the above family or anyone with Byars ancestors in NC, SC, or VA.

TATE WALL

Wanda Clark, 1304 E Miami, McAlester, OK 74501

BOOK REVIEWS

Ancestors and Descendants of Smiths compiled by Linda G. Cheek, Rt. 8 Box 48, Easley, SC 29640. Hard bound, 308 pages, including two indices. $35.00, including postage and handling.

Rather than publish a genealogy of one line of the all too common surname of Smith, Mrs. Cheek has published a compendium of of Smith materials gathered in over twenty years of research and primarily related to Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and the westward expansion of Smith families from this region. To further widen the coverage of this volume, the compiler has included lineages submitted to her by other Smith researchers (and their addresses as of 1986). Also included are undocumented and conjectural lineages as clues for future researchers.

Throughout this volume sources, when known, are cited and cover everything from original courthouse records to such standards as the Leonardo Andrea collection and the William and Mary Quarterly. An added bonus to this wealth of information are the two indices. The first covers all the Smiths in the volume and the second all other surnames. This book is a must for any one interested in the Smiths in the southeastern United States.

Notes & Quotes from the Lives and Times of the Spencer Chambers Clan by LaVerne Keeler Kilgore, 6144 Whitman Ave., Ft. Worth, TX 76133. Spiral bound, 165 pages, illustrated.

Although many genealogies contain basic facts about our ancestors, Mrs. Kilgore attempts to do more. She relates many anecdotes, stories, letters, etc. which make the life of the Spencer Chambers family more real. (Also included is relevant information on Spencer's father and grandfather Barak and Phillip Chambers who lived in the Piedmont of South Carolina. The latter was born in England ca. 1750.)

Documentation is excellent. Photocopies of church records, deeds, letters, marriage licenses, etc. (in addition to nearly 50 photographs) and complete transcripts of other relevant items are provided. Anecdotes and stories are footnoted where possible.

This volume is a real boon to not only those related to the Chambers family but to those who want a clearer picture of life in the deep South late in the last century and early in the present one.

Reminiscences of The War Between The States, by W. R. Tanner. 26 pages, soft cover.

$5.00

W. R. Tanner was a Confederate veteran who lived at Cowpens, Spartanburg County, SC. J. R. Gainey has acquired from his family all the remaining copies of his reminiscences, which were published in 1931. They tell the story of how one participant viewed the Civil War and relates some anecdotes of his comrades. Also included is a roster of Company C, 13th South Carolina Regiment. A must for any Civil War buff.

The 1820 Census, Chester District, South Carolina, compiled by Faye Berry. 31 pages, soft cover.

$6.50

Faye Berry has abstracted the information found in the 1820 federal census for the over 1,500 families then living in Chester District. (Included in this volume are 14 families headed by "free persons of colour.") This volume eliminates the need of sitting in front of a microfilm viewer to find your ancestor's family here in 1820. It is a great research aid presented in a easy to use size and format.

The History of Mount Zion Church and Her People, by Dr. J. B. O. Landrum, edited by Joseph R. Gainey. 17 pages plus index, soft cover.

$5.00

This is a republication of a 1885 volume on Mount Zion Baptist Church, near Inman, Spartanburg County, SC. It traces the church from its establishment as a mission of Bethlehem Baptist in 1804, through its organization in 1827, up to the history's publication in 1884. This volume, though small in size, contains a wealth of information, both historical and genealogical, on Mount Zion and its early members.

1860 Mortality Census of Upper South Carolina, Volume I, compiled and edited by Faye Berry. 33 pages, soft cover.

$6.50

This is first in a two volume set which will include all of the Piedmont. Chester, Greenville, Spartanburg, Union, York, and Pickens Districts are in this volume. (Pickens at the time incorporated what is now Oconee County. Cherokee County was then found as part of Spartanburg, Union, and York counties.) Ms. Berry has listed all persons legible on the microfilm copy at the S. C. state archives. She has given their name, sex, age, race, and month of death as reported by the enumerator.

An Account of Marriages Solemnized By Tolaver Robertson In South Carolina Between October 1842 & February 1867, edited by Joseph R. Gainey. 16 pages plus index.

$5.00

Rev. Tolaver Robertson kept an account of the marriages he "solemnized". This is not an unusual practice. What is unusual is that he published it in 1867. However, only one copy is known to have survived. This is a republication of the material found in it. Since marriage records were not kept by the State of South Carolina before 1911, this is a great boon to genealogists, especially those with roots in Laurens and Greenville counties. Robertson recorded 364 marriages for nearly 275 different surnames.

Back issues of the Quarterly are available at $6.00 per issue. Write the Society for a complete list of the contents of all back issues.
