

YORKVILLE HISTORICAL SOCIETY AND CULTURE & HERITAGE MUSEUMS PRESENT:

Circus Historical Marker Dedication

Saturday, May 19 11am—2pm

Join us in commemorating the history of the Barnett Brothers and the Bennett Brothers Circuses with the dedication of a state historical marker on the site of the 1929-1946 circus winter quarters in downtown York. Mayor Eddie Lee will speak at the unveiling of the marker at 11 am at the corner of Roosevelt and East Jefferson Streets. Enjoy refreshments and visit the circus historical exhibits, open May 19 and 21-25. At 1pm, be sure to cheer for your favorite team at the softball game between the York Fire Department and the York Police Department. Reception, exhibits, and softball game located at the McCelvey Center, 212 East Jefferson Street. Free.

For more information call the Historical Center of York County at 803-684-3948 ext. 33.

The Culture & Heritage Museums is a family of museums in York County, SC, which includes Historic Brattonsville, the McCelvey Center, the Museum of York County, and Main Street Children's Museum.

WWW.CHMUSEUMS.ORG

Dorkville Historical Society
"For the preservation of Historic York"
Post Office Box 1122, York South Carolina 29745

www.yorkvillehs.org